What you need to know about HPV Vaccination

Mountains of Hope
West Virginia Cancer Coalition

Talk to your provider today!

Fast Facts

- The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that children complete the HPV vaccine series between ages 9 and 13.
- The HPV vaccine protects against over 90% of cancers caused by HPV.
- Children who begin the HPV vaccination series before age 15 receive 2 doses. Children who begin the HPV vaccination series after the age of 15 receive 3 doses.

REMEMBER...

HPV Vaccination is Cancer Prevention

MOUNTAINS OF HOPE
West Virginia Cancer Coalition

Your Logo Here